YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before You enter into an insurance contract, You have a duty to tell Us anything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect Our decision to insure You and on what terms.

You have this duty until We agree to insure You.

You have the same duty before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell Us anything that:

- > reduces the risk We insure You for; or
- > is common knowledge; or
- > We know or should know as an insurer; or

- > We waive Your duty to tell Us about.

If You do not tell Us Something

If You do not tell Us anything You are required to, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both.

If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

OUR AGREEMENT WITH YOU

Subject to Your payment of or agreement to pay Us the premium set out in Your Schedule (including any additional premium for the inclusion of available additional benefits), We agree to provide the insurance on the terms and conditions set out in this Policy, which includes Your Schedule and any endorsement We might issue. You should read each of these documents carefully for full details of the terms.

We will cover You for covered loss or damage under the sections of the Policy You selected.

If You make a claim, We will not pay more than the Sums Insured or Maximum Loss Limit (as applicable) shown in Your Schedule or section unless We have stated that there is an additional benefit applying to a particular section.

POLICY WORDING

The Policy Wording contains the terms and conditions of the insurance cover offered as well as information about Your rights and obligations under the Policy. When We issue the insurance to You, You will also receive a Schedule which describes what We have agreed to cover and other important information relating to Your information, including any applicable deductible, limits and sub-limits.

ADEQUATE SUMS INSURED

It is Your responsibility to ensure the Sums Insured are appropriate for You and are likely to adequately cover loss You may suffer. You should review these amounts both during the currency of the Policy and prior to renewal each year. Regular building valuations should be sought to ensure that limits are set at appropriate levels. If You do not adequately insure Yourself, You may have to bear the uninsured proportion of any loss Yourself.

Seek professional valuation advice where necessary and contact Us if You need to revise Your level of cover.

HOW TO MAKE A CLAIM

If an event has occurred which You believe has, or is likely to, give rise to a claim under the Policy, You must notify Us as soon as possible after the Damage, preferably within 30 calendar days, by contacting ARX using the contact details set out in this Important Information section or Your insurance broker who arrange this Policy for You.

Our liability to pay a claim under this Policy is subject to compliance with the procedures set out under the heading “Claims Conditions and Procedures” of the Policy. You should familiarise Yourself with that section in order to avoid unexpected complications with a claim.

While Your claim is being processed, You must not do any of the following things:

- > Authorise the repair or replacement of any property unless it is required for safety reasons or to minimize or prevent further loss, damage or liability.
- > Admit liability for any loss, damage or liability or settle or attempt to settle or defend any claim without our prior written consent.

You must not do anything which prevents Us from enforcing these rights and to assist Us in this regard, You must provide Us all the information and cooperation that We reasonably require.

In the event of a successful action against such a third party, We will be entitled to retain an amount from the sum recovered as would equal the original sum paid by Us to You plus Our costs of pursuing the claim. Should any money be recovered in excess of this, it will be paid to You.
